

“Humboldt, Mexico and the United States: A History of a Transcendental Intrigue”

Dr. Jaime Labastida is one of the most prominent intellectuals/writers of contemporary Mexico. He is President of the Mexican Academy of Letters and also President of Siglo XXI Editors (one of the most prestigious presses in Latin America). In addition, he has published over 20 books and over a hundred articles on culture, politics, society and literature.

Tuesday, May 2
2:00 p.m.
6275 Bunche Hall

Please note: the talk will be in Spanish

